EDWARDSVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

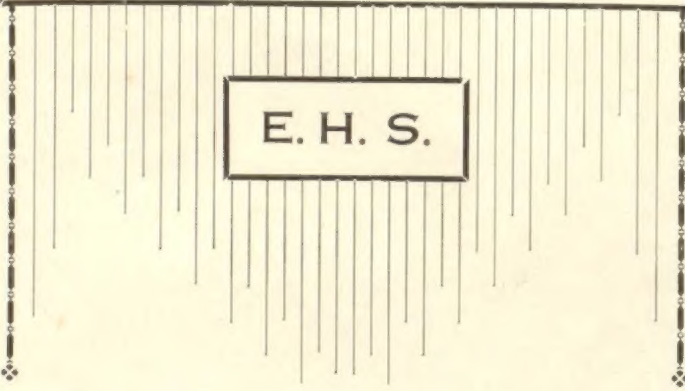

Edwardsville, Illinois

A FIRST WORD

WELL realizing that the "days of old when knights were bold" are past, and that a new conception of honor in action has taken its place, and that its degree of cultivation is a vital factor in all phases of high school life, the makers of this annual have herein for you attempted to visualize summarily the carry-over to the modern day. As you, picture-gazer and word-reader, lay each page slowly upon the one preceding it and feel your heart strings vibrating in chords struck years ago, may your dark days be made more endurable and your sunny days more enduring.

THE SPIRIT OF OUR HIGH SCHOOL

IT IS just about as hard to define the spirit of a school as it is to define the patriotism of a nation. It has been said too that democracy and Americanism are hard to explain because they are changing notions, changing ideals, and changing policies to meet new situations. The same is true of our school; it must move along and make progress educationally by trying out new methods of teaching and better methods of administration, always keeping the best interests of the individual student in the foreground.

We notice that more and more is the student encouraged to try out some things for himself, participate in projects with others, initiate some activity, and thereby begin to realize a little sooner some of the situations that he will meet in group activities outside of school. In other words, our school tries to create life situations in the class as well as in the other phases of school.

Our school spirit, then, should grow in different directions, or shall we say, branch out in different directions? Certainly it must be a spirit which desires seeking after the truth aside from prejudice and half-baked opinion, having each classroom a laboratory for finding out and helping us apply those characteristics which give us pleasing personalities. Good will, tolerance, patience, honesty, courtesy, and industry must be the attending virtues in the spirit we hope to have and to attain.

SENIOR HISTORY

FOUR years ago we skipped blithely up the drive and down the walk to the main entrance of E. H. S. We paused, and then with a nonchalant gesture, mounted the steps. With a mighty tug we opened the door and stepped over the threshold of wisdom into the noble institution of learning. As the door banged, all cockiness vanished and in its place came an empty feeling of insignificance. From far off, it seemed, some one reminded us that we were—Freshmen!

In the blur of activity that followed, we hastily adjusted ourselves to our proper places. We did our bit wherever possible and gallantly backed our school's honor and prestige. After a seemingly interminable length of time, we waded through a trying year of education proudly to pronounce ourselves—Sophomores!

As Sophomores we temporarily snubbed the "Freshies" as a consolation for our wounded dignities suffered the previous semester. This rapidly passing infatuation left us up on our toes and ready to go. We enthusiastically backed our game and fighting athletes in addition to placing a generous helping of representatives in each activity. Our way undisputed, we plodded steadily through an eventful year. Among the epic happenings was the band's sensational rise to fame and national honors. After a truly great year, we found ourselves—Juniors!

Our Junior year was a "corker" from the start. A remodeled football team fought its way to a championship, the basketball team made it "hot" for all contenders, and the track squad led the district. Even the tennis aggregation produced a champion doubles team. The operetta was a howling success, the Junior class play was superlative, and the Seniors were entertained at the annual banquet as they should be. Ever persevering, we fought our way through a jungle of studies, text-books, and activities to a high platform labeled—Seniors!

There we surveyed our future and discovered it to be excellent. Then came a hard blow to the field of sports, but we showed our true sportsmanship and took it "on the chin." Undismayed, we continued to turn out winning teams. Dramatics and music zestfully continued in the superb degree. Not letting up for an instant, we devoured all assignments with the appetite of an ogre. Now that the time has come to leave these alabaster portals of our Alma Mater, an obstinate lump arises in our throats and a feeling of genuine sorrow in our hearts.

But, fellow students, when we do leave this memorable sanctuary, we depart as one of the gamest, scrappiest, determined battalion of recruits ever to go from these friendly halls!

OKay, World, bring on your troubles!

YE CLASS WILL

WE, the Seniors, party of the first part, do hereby covenant and agree to pass on our most valuable possessions to the remaining High School student body and faculty, party of the second part, as designated in the following passages, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred thirty-five, to-wit:

- I, James Abbee, leave my diet to Thomas Hamlin.
- I, Lucille Abbee, leave the G. A. A. in a terrible condition without me.
- I, Charles Abendroth, leave my sales talks to any prospective salesman.
- I, Frederick Amistadi, leave with regret.
- I, Mildred Ashauer, leave sister and brother to carry on.
- I, Josephine Augsburg, leave my instrument to another Augsburg.
- I, Vera Baird, leave my stride to Marie Krejci to increase transportation.
- I, Calvin Bauer, leave my studious attitude to Gordon B. Chowen.
- I, Raymond Bender, leave the public speaking class sadly.
- I, Flora Bernasek, leave my fascinating ways to any worthy Sophomore.
- I, Dorothy Bernreuther, leave my office cares to Juanita Greear.
- I, Cleo Betzold, leave my curly locks to Muriel Dippold.
- I, Bernard Birger, leave my "snappy" stories to be used again in public speaking class. (Notice: Miss Perzrem resigns.)
- I, Erras Blase, leave a lot of wit and humor to be used on rainy days in E. H. S.
- I, Clarence Bohm, leave in my "road-stir."
- I, Joyce Bollman, leave to join the Foreign Legion, where they will appreciate my infernal gabbing.
- I, Lucille Breitbarth, leave my flirtations to Doug Begeman.
- I, Esther Buhrman, leave my quiet personality to be distributed generously to the "Freshies."
- I, Raymond Burns, leave my undiluted wit to Allister Stewart.
- I, Paul Burrus, will my knowledge of basketball to anyone wishing to become a referee.
- I, Louis Chairney, leave my muscular build to Kelly Krumeich.
- I, LaVergne Chandler, bequeath my talent in breaking hearts to Joseph Stepanovich.
- I, Dolores Choate, bequeath my driving ability to Betty Huggins.
- I, Pete Christy, leave quietly for the country.
- I, William Colbert, leave my platforms to turn the school around to Blair Watson.
- I, Thomas Cunningham, leave my list of telephone numbers to the Webb boys.
- I, Merle Dauderman, leave the locker room mirrors to Kathleen Fitzgerald.
- I, Roy Dees, leave the girdiron grassless.
- I, Agnes Dettmar, leave my charming ways to Miss Wood.
- I, Elva Dittes, leave my blonde locks to Virginia Baird.
- I, Henry Dittes, leave for Worden, never to roam again.
- I, Norman Fiegenbaum, leave a history of basketball.
- I, Rebecca Fiegenbaum, leave my superiority complex to Gerry Watson.
- I, Leonard Flavin, leave noiselessly.
- I, Krome George, leave the "labs" in total disorder.
- I, Geraldine Giese, leave my lisp to Mr. Love.
- I, George Handlon, leave my book on "How to Make a Man of Yourself" to Billy Tietze.
- I, Helen Havelka, leave swiftly.
- I, Virgil Hellinger, leave my gun to Miss Adams.
- I, Paul Hertel, leave two drum sticks, wooden, to U'dell Mason.
- I, Harold Highlander, leave Marylee to no one.
- I, Calvin Hofeditz, leave my band reputation in care of the Varner family.
- I, Clarence Hofeditz, leave for Reno.
- I, Mildred Honerkamp, leave my shorthand to Betty Clayton.
- I, Miriam Hotz, leave with Paul.
- I, Ruth Hunt, leave my "Garbo" ways to Dorothy Ann Landon.
- I, Virginia Hunt, leave my false teeth to Kenneth Tudor.
- I, Myrtle Hyten, leave my henna to Franklin Peirce.
- I, Fred Jacobi, leave my public speaking wit to Earl Leitner.
- I, Lawrence Kanady, leave my pantomimes to Libby Mack.
- I, Mary Kaufman, leave my place on the honor roll to George Brendle.
- I, Ellen Kearney, leave my date book to K. Fitzgerald.
- I, Nigel Klausing, leave my giggles to the Blumberg Twins.

JUNIOR HISTORY

AFTER much anxiety and impatient waiting, the class of '36 entered E. H. S. with little thought of the trials and tribulations which it would encounter. Even our initiation into the obscurities of x, y, and z failed to take our minds off the jeers of upper classmen! Were our faces red to find ourselves always in the wrong study hall! At the Halloween party we spent much time observing the social graces of our elders, but at our own Freshman party we felt free to try our wings—I mean our feet.

By the time our second year in high school rolled around, we were quite at home and ready to make life miserable for the timid beginners. Why we could not make the "Freshies" use the elevator instead of tiring themselves by trudging up and down stairs was one of the chief mysteries of our Sophomore term. Our social life and studies went off with a "bang," and we were loyal supporters of all E. H. S. events.

Last fall we returned as full of "pep" as ever and with a zest to make our Junior year bigger and better. That we are accomplishing this is shown by the many activities in which we are represented by at least one member of our class.

So to the honors of our previous years we have added many more, and without a doubt the record of our class will be one of the greatest ever written in the history of our school after achievements of us as Seniors are also written to our part.

And now we are all looking forward to that last wonderful year in E. H. S., which is "just around the corner."

SOPHOMORE HISTORY

IN THE fall of '33, a queer looking group of human specimens entered E. H. S., each ready to begin his career in the great "Hall of Learning." The two hundred and nine of us were plenty "fresh" and "rarin' to go," but after one week we were tamed down by the faculty and upper classmen. Of course, the Freshman-Sophomore party was the big event of our first year, and everyone turned out to take part in that great occasion. From that time on, we have showed those ridiculing Seniors—and the Juniors too—that we have rhythm, and that we can really "take it" and "give it."

This year we came back more refined. All short pants of younger days had been discarded, and the mannish charm of long trousers made our boys feel at last like true gentlemen. Too, many of the boys commenced to grow those face decorations commonly known as beards, and those who were not quite so masculine could be seen stroking their chins wistfully. However, though men we had become, a few of us (meaning by "few" the gallant heroes of our class) seemed unable to depart from the third floor where we "cooed" with the popular new Freshman beauties.

Thus, with our subjects changed and talents bettered, as well as the number of activities in school we represent and take part in increased, the Sophomores are planning to become even stronger and accomplish more things in the future. We are pushing the ball down the field of success.

Ready! One, two, three, hike! Rah! Sophomores!

FRESHMAN HISTORY

WE "Freshies" came to the Edwardsville High School last September prepared to undertake with our chins up the advanced studies.

During the first few days in our new home we were lost the greater part of the time. When we politely asked some of those mighty Seniors where a certain room was, they, of course, would tell us wrong or suggest that we take the elevator, as usual; but we were not so "green" as the upper classmen thought us to be.

However, within several weeks the Freshman girls began to appear with prettier faces—and I should say, too, that they looked classier! Then it wasn't long before some of the Junior and Senior gentlemen were pursuing and courting our beautiful lasses. We boys seemed no more worth the consideration of the "face-lifted" maidens after the arrival of these handsome heroes into their lives. Well, why worry, who said we cared anyhow?

The Freshman boys had other interests. Some entered football and were successful. Then at the opening of the great basketball season, our class became well represented on the squad. The pivot man of E. H. S. was a member of our class! The girls also participated in athletic and school activities.

Hence, though we are beginners, we are the best boosters and rooters of good old E. H. S. May we continue to be so, and may we get to the top of the ladder of success! Roll on, "Freshies"!

(Concluded from the thirteenth page.)

1. Hedwig Kochanski, leave my sommersault tricks to Anna Hofeditz. (Let's have more and faster turn-overs.)
1. Verna Koester, leave my blonde curls to any other would-be star.
1. Harold Kribs, leave my actor's ability to Allister Stewart. (Famous last words: "Carry on faithfully, Allister.")
1. Woodrow Lamb, leave to manage Carnera's career.
1. Waldon Lewis, leave alone and blue.
1. Edna Longwish, leave the "continental" to no one—only slightly used, why should I?
1. Thelma Madison, leave my "Garbo" feet to Helen Hanser.
1. Errah Martin, leave my noisy ways to Louise Schwartz.
1. Marie Mateyka, leave my sunny disposition to Miss Davis to be used the first semester in Junior shorthand.
1. Frederick Merkel, leave my classroom boners to Gail Stubbs.
1. Wilbur Meyer, leave my technique in vamping Junior girls to Art Buchanan.
1. Melvin Moehle, leave a brilliant career to George Brendle.
1. Earl Monroe, leave to haunt houses.
1. Elizabeth Morgan, leave my idea for variety to all students—a good idea, too.
1. John Muzik, leave my flirtations to V. Spitze.
1. Bernice Neathammer, leave my typing technique to any one—don't rush.
1. Alma Nowak, leave to model in the K-9 Show.
1. Loretta O'Connell, leave my appreciation of Carl Anderson's "Henry" to Leo Mateyka.
1. Murl Paproth, leave my typing ability to some lucky Junior.
1. Genevieve Piper, leave my siren ways to Norma Moore.
1. Norman Probst, leave my flaming locks to anyone desiring a change—and what a change.
1. Lorraine Rasplica, leave my "I don't know" to Dorman Broderick.
1. Caroline Raut, leave my style recitations to Helen E. Estabrook.
1. Charles Reichert, bequeath what's left of my Ford to Miss Oliver so that she too may know its master performances.
1. Lillian Rhoads, bequeath my talkative ways to Marie Buckles.
1. Dorothy Schafer, leave Miss Ricke with regret.
1. Grace Scheibal, leave to put Mont Station on the map.
1. Eugene Schmid, will my heartaches to "Curly" Herrin.
1. John Schwager, leave my typewriter uncovered.

SENIOR CLASS OF 1935

ETAOHC SEROLON

ATHLETICS

THE Illinois Southwestern Conference, of which Edwardsville High was a member, was dissolved on October 10, 1934. When a new conference was organized, Edwardsville was not invited to enter. Nevertheless, the scheduled games were played, and the sportsmanship shown was a credit to both the school and the team.

The Football Team

Clarence Hydron ('35), a real fighting captain, could penetrate any line with his savage lunges. Gussie deservedly received honorable mention on the All-State eleven.

Gail Stubbs ('36), the Tiger's quarter back for the past two seasons, is captain-elect for 1935. To a good leader of this year's team we say, "Here's to you and your team in 1935!"

August Soehlke ('35) played as a regular end and was a fine blocker and pass receiver. Injury in the East Side game prevented Junior from playing the final game at Granite City.

George Handlon ('35) was the reliable right guard for the Tigers. He was an iron man on the team, having played the full time of every game.

Urban Grebel ('35), the keynote of the team's success, also played in every game. The reason for so few Tiger fumbles was Urb's great passing ability.

Mickey Evanko ('36) was a peppy and battling guard. It seemed they didn't come too tough for the big strapping fellow, Mick, to handle.

Harold Highlander ('35), a tackle from whom great things were forthcoming, unfortunately was through injury lost to the team before the first game.

Jack Yates ('35), another tough-luck member, was injured before the first game. He tried to play again but his shoulder injury prevented it.

Bill Colbert ('35) was probably our most aggressive player. He was always fighting and was a great asset to the team's success.

William Lamkin ('36) played his first season of football. Bill specialized in blocking, as many an opposing lineman could now tell you.

Lindell Webb ('37), as tackle, in his first gridiron season was the reason that many of the opposing team's backs were thrown for big losses.

Arthur Svaldi ('36) finished the season in true form. We were glad that this two hundred pounds of man was on our side and not on our opponents'.

Norman Probst ('35) played end until the Alton game, when he was ruled out on account of age. He was a player in the game who was deserving of much praise.

Calvin Bauer ('35), a half back, was a hard runner and became well known because of this fact. Stinger was also an all around valuable man.

Bernard Birger ('35) was without a doubt the best blocker on the team.

V. Spitze, L. Kaufman, C. Werner, Hessel, A. Tenick, S. Spevok, B. Hyten, A. Stephens, Chowen, Cooper, A. Hommert, Russell.
Coach Kole, W. Colbert, R. Miller, ates, Highlander, Bauer, Hydon, Birger, Stubbs, Dees, Mr. Gouza Burrus, Lamkin, L. Webb, G. Handlon, U. Grebel, Evanko, A. Svaldi, A. Soehlike, Mu. paproth.

This accounts for his having played the guard position.

Ray Miller ('36) played half back and came along in fine style. As a left-handed passer he was a thorn in any team's path.

Roy Dees ('35), a half back, was both shifty and scrappy. They may come larger but not with any more fight. "Give it to Roy" was the theme song in '34.

The substitutes also contributed largely to the team's success: Buster Hyten, William Hessel, Alvin Hommert, Clifford Werner, Stanley Spevok, Albert Tenick, Leo Kaufman, Allen Stephens, Vincent Spitze, Dorrance Russell, Gordon Chowen, and Ronald Cooper.

Edwardsville, 0—Hillsboro, 7.

A game of champions, Hillsboro having won its conference championship last year. Muddy field; footing uncertain. First quarter scoreless. Both teams rather nervous. Touchdown by Hillsboro near end of first half. Tigers left scoreless but not outclassed.

Edwardsville, 14—Staunton, 0.

Staunton famous for its football teams in the past. Downpour of rain during entire game. E. H. S. band unable to go through its maneuvers. Sliding and slushing, Tigers made two touchdowns and a safety.

Edwardsville, 7—Bend, 0.

Grand battle between two offensive teams. Lots of thrills. Tigers scored in third quarter—only touchdown of entire game. Both E. H. S. and Bend bands as added attractions.

Edwardsville, 18—Madison, 0.

Game played on Granite High's field. Tigers scored after first six minutes of game. Madison's opposition strong at end of first half. Two more touchdowns for Tigers in second half—certain victory. Game supposed to have been first conference game. Tigers still well backed by local fans.

Edwardsville, 13—Belleville, 14.

Belleville eleven's nerves keyed to a high pitch; scored in first quarter. Belleville still seven points ahead at half. Another score. Two touchdowns by Tigers in fourth quarter. Only one extra point gained. Belleville given very close race.

Edwardsville, 7—Wood River, 13.

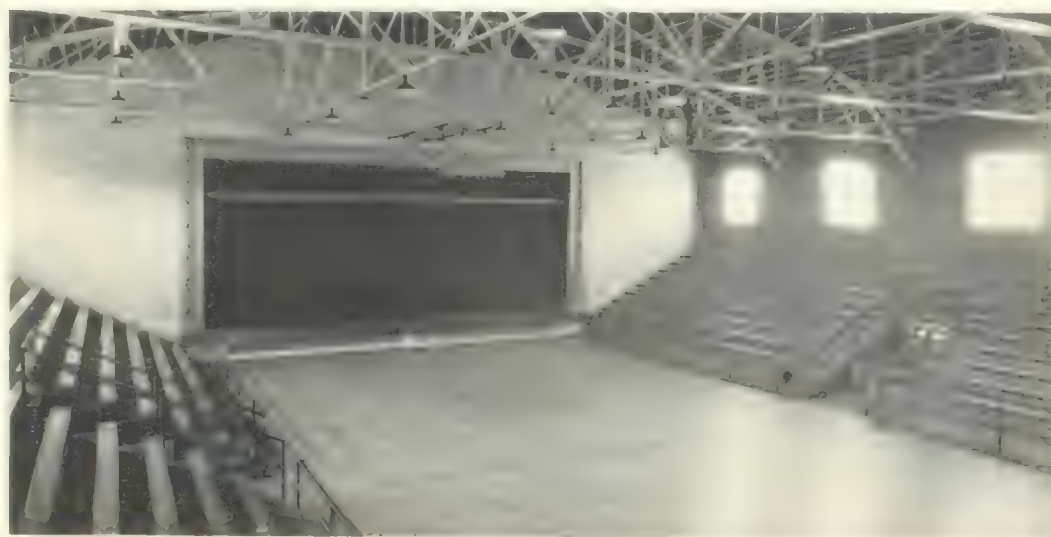

Wood River scored in first quarter but with no extra point. Score by Tigers in second quarter; extra point gained. Third quarter scoreless. Second hard drive by Wood River in fourth quarter ending in a touchdown by a short pass.

THE large number of basketball games drew unusual crowds this year. The quality of each game seemed to be a good advertisement for the next. The season was successful in respect to both sportsmanship and general interest.

The Basketball Team

Junior Soehike ('35), captain for the second consecutive year, did a remarkable job of playing forward all season and especially in the tournament.

Colin Handlon ('36), entering at mid-year, started the offense working. His election for pilot of next year's team was unanimous.

Paul Burrus ('35) still remained the "pepper box" that he was last year and furnished a lot of the pep and fight which kept the team clicking.

Randell Webb ('38), with his six-foot-five pivot shots, wrecked our opponents. There were few from whom he could not get the tip-off.

Lindell Webb ('37) was a guard of first rank who specialized in taking the ball off the opponent's backboard.

Norman Fiegenbaum ('35), though he had to leave us at mid-year, lent valuable assistance. Unfortunately, sickness prevented his playing as many games as possible.

Dave Simpson ('37), one of the squad's cleverest ball handlers, could not break into the first five. Great things are in store for him in basketball.

Buster Hyten ('37), was one of the fastest men on the squad and adept in stealing the opponents' ball. He went on several scoring sprees in first team games.

Leo Kaufman ('38) played guard on the first team several times. He will be remembered for his long shot in the last minute of the close Metropolis game.

Bill Lamkin ('36), a last year's letter man, was a good all around basketball player. His left-handed passing seemed to baffle the opposition all the time.

Edwardsville, 18—Livingston, 17.

Pre-season practice game. Very tough battle.

Edwardsville, 24—Salem, 49.

First season game. Second team had to be called out.

Edwardsville, 32—Litchfield, 37.

Litchfield victorious over all teams facing it this year. Battle royal in downing Tigers.

Edwardsville, 16—Hillsboro, 17.

Way clear for certain Tiger victory with one point lead. Rebound shot by Hillsboro won them the game.

Edwardsville, 39—Carrollton, 18.

First home game. Easy victory for Edwardsville. Score 39-2 when substitutions were started.

Edwardsville, 27—Staunton, 16.

Staunton's "string" of victories. Tigers determined to win from them. Succeeded too.

Edwardsville, 32—Alumni, 16.

Last year's game Alumni victory. Tables turned on this one.

Edwardsville, 44—Owaneco, 13.

Owaneco had very good record. Surprised by Tigers.

Edwardsville, 21—Benld, 15.

Benld showed Edwardsville a real scrap.

Edwardsville, 21—Staunton, 14.

Staunton, beaten last time, out for revenge. Second defeat at the hands of the Tigers.

Edwardsville, 39—Metropolis, 13.

Southern Illinois giants not able to stop fighting Tigers. Easy victory.

Edwardsville, 25—Beaumont, 30.

St. Louis team gave Edwardsville their first home defeat. Overtime period necessary.

Edwardsville, 27—Livingston, 6.

Tigers sported new suits. Only two field goals made by Livingston.

Edwardsville, 21—Metropolis, 20.

Giants tougher on their own floor. Heedless of that, Tigers dealt them their first home defeat.

Edwardsville, 19—Mt. Olive, 15.

Good Mt. Olive zone defense made going hard for Edwardsville.

Edwardsville, 20—Witt, 14.

Witt, noted for its good teams, put up lots of opposition.

Edwardsville, 47—Western Military, 26.

Cadets rushed Tigers during first half. Tigers staged comeback and ran up big margin.

Edwardsville, 23—Lebanon, 17.

Lebanon with very good record bowed down in defeat.

Edwardsville, 24—Litchfield, 20.

Another revenge battle which ended in opponents' defeat.

Edwardsville, 29—Paducah (Heath) 21.

Kentuckians, though sharp shooters, were defeated.

Edwardsville, 34—Gillespie, 14.

Rough game. Easy victory for Tigers.

Edwardsville, 15—Decatur, 23.

Decatur had hard time in defeating Edwardsville. Both teams played a good game.

Edwardsville, 38—Benld, 12.

Poor time for revenge game—Tigers had to break in new orange suits with victory.

Edwardsville, 31—Hillsboro, 29.

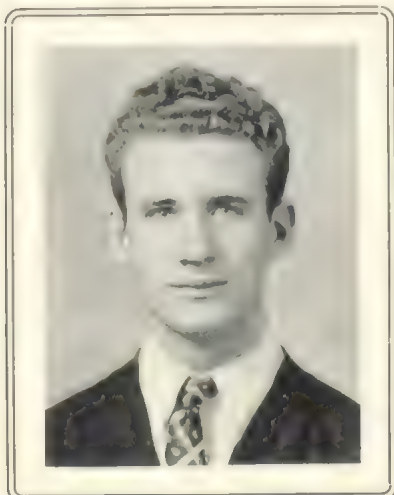

Last game put Edwardsville in mood for victory. Two overtime periods played.

District Tournament Games.

Edwardsville, 34—Wood River, 27.

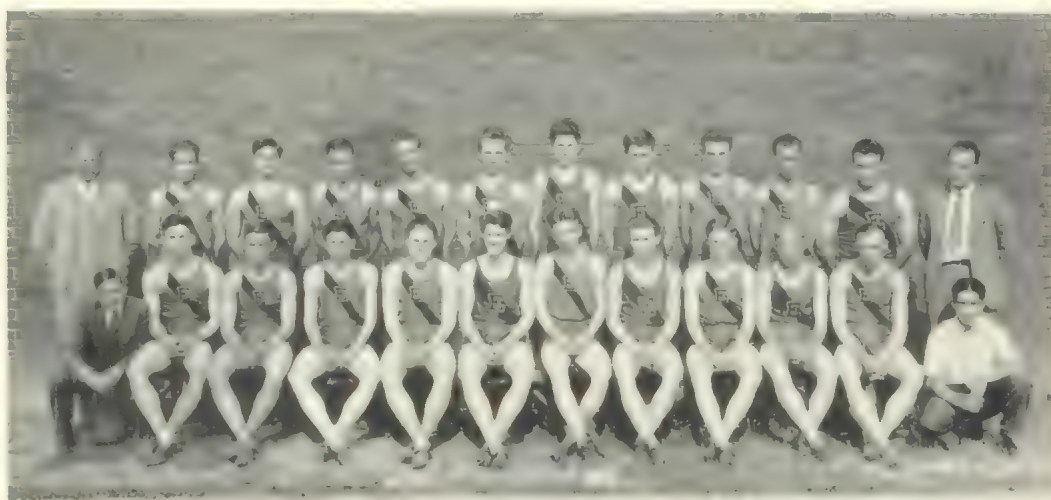

Oilers furnished enough oil to make the Tiger machine work fine.

TENNIS

THE 1934 spring schedule was the longest and the most interesting during recent years. The squad consisted of the following boys: Harrison Stubbs, William Crossman, Colin Handlon, and David Simpson. Stubbs and Crossman, both seniors, played in nineteen matches. Stubbs won fifteen, and Crossman sixteen out of their totals. In most of these matches they played as a doubles team. In tournament play this team was able to defeat all teams except Granite City, which team defeated us in the finals at the conference meet. Handlon, playing his second year, won ten out of thirteen matches. Simpson as a freshman won nine out of thirteen matches. Both of these boys should make things really interesting before they graduate. Considering all matches played last spring, Edwardsville High won nineteen singles matches and lost eight, and won eighteen doubles matches and lost four. Besides the conference teams, this included Benld, Staunton and O'Fallon teams.

The 1934 fall schedule was very short but equally interesting. The squad consisted of David Simpson, Joyce Bollman, Arthur Buchanan, Dick Owsley, Dick Mudge and Krome George. A school tournament was played, but only the singles division was completed. Dave Simpson won it very easily. The other members of the squad made a good showing in individual matches but lacked experience as well as size.

The district meet for the 1934-35 term of school was suddenly announced to be held last fall, and almost as suddenly we found ourselves playing it off. Simpson was by far the best in singles and came through with the district championship. He then went to Champaign to enter the state finals but met defeat in the second match with a boy from Chicago. This was the first time in recent years that a local boy was able to win a district title.

ORGANIZED in the autumn of 1928, the G. A. A. is the only club of its kind in the school. Being affiliated with the Illinois League of High School Girls' Athletic Associations, it is an organization for girls interested in athletics and has for its objectives healthful development, athletic ability, and sportsmanship. Awards based upon the number of points gained by participation in the various sports are made to its members.

The athletic activities grouped under the banner of the association are basketball, baseball, volley ball, tennis, hiking and archery. The latter was begun only this year and has been enthusiastically received.

During the past season, the G. A. A. has sponsored many social get-togethers, among which have been the Christmas party, given for the poor children of the city; the basketball banquet, given by the losers for the winners of the tournament; and the Valentine party. This year the club has sent representatives to camp and to the Playday festivities.

The officers are Cleo Betzold, president; Lucille Abbee, vice-president; and Helen Westbrook, secretary-treasurer. Miss Weigel is the faculty adviser.

GIRLS' SPORTS

THE Hiking Club tramped the fields late on Thursday afternoons and on Saturdays to total the required sixty miles in eight weeks. The membership was large in both the fall and the spring. The officers were Marie Knaul, president; Phyllis Hubach, vice-president; and Vera Bayer, secretary-treasurer. The hike leader is Miss Oliver.

Baseball was played in the fall and in the spring. Two teams were chosen from the large number coming out. The captains were Marie Plessa and Helen Westbrook. The latter's team won the greater number of games. Miss Quernheim directs the teams.

The volley ball teams excelled in "vim, vigor and vitality," having played sixteen games on the Tuesdays and Thursdays of eight weeks. Goldie Greenwood and Muriel Dippold were the captains. Muriel Dippold's team lost, and treated the other team to an informal picnic supper in November. This ended the season. Miss Harris is the organizer.

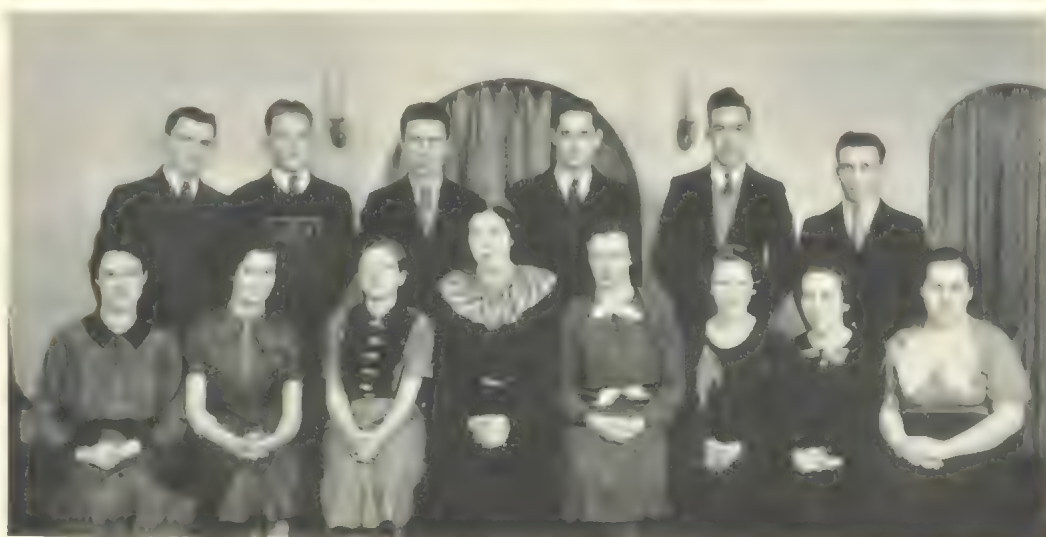

Girls' basketball began in the latter part of November and ended in February with a tournament. Practice was held twice a week, on Monday and Friday nights. The players were, as usual, divided into four teams according to classes. The Seniors, who were again victorious in the tournament, completed their fourth season of basketball championship. The captains were Ruth Weidner, Freshmen; Goldie Greenwood, Sophomores; Marie Plessa, Juniors, and Lucille Abbee, Seniors. Miss Weigel is the coach.

PERHAPS you have often wondered during the fourth period why the people upstairs simply cannot keep the mice from nesting in their phonograph? The answer is that it is not a phonograph which you have been hearing. The glee clubs really are quite musical. On Mondays and Wednesdays you hear the deep and melodious voices of the boys, and on Tuesdays and Thursdays the higher and airier ones of the girls.

Last November the two clubs cooperated to put over the operetta, "Jerry of Jericho Road," and the result was indeed gratifying. Many representatives from both organizations have been given the opportunity to sing at public performances, both as soloists and as members of trios, quartets, sextets, or the entire chorus. The memberships of both clubs are somewhat smaller than usual because of the six-period day, but are on that account not less qualified; rather, they are superior.

The two clubs have Betty Ann Guller as accompanist and Miss Pergrem as director.

THE BAND

A GAIN the eighty-seven members of the E. H. S. band have "done their stuff." The district band contest was held this year in Edwardsville with Mr. Varner as district chairman. On Friday evening, April 12, the three judges heard the Collinsville and Edwardsville High School bands compete for the third time. As before, they decided that both bands should go to the state contest in Champaign on May 4. It will be remembered that in 1933 the band won the district and the state contests, being qualified for the national, where it won second place honors. Last year only second place in the state contest was reached.

Everything is being done by the school, the town as a whole, and especially the band members to bring home highest honors.

THE ORCHESTRA

IT IS doubtful whether most people realize the true merits of the High School orchestra. The orchestra seems to be eclipsed by the prize winning band. Nevertheless, it certainly is outstanding and deserves to be complimented. With just a little greater practice, persistence, and membership, this organization would probably rank equally as high as the band.

The orchestra did a splendid job again this year with the accompaniment for the operetta, "Jerry of Jericho Road." Whenever dignity and grace are needed to round out a program, they are sure to be found in a performance by the orchestra.

Although it has not been given the opportunity of putting on a full concert by itself this year, it is quite a valuable asset to the school and a credit to Mr. Varner.

THE HI-Y CLUB

Mr. Love, Spenandio, Peirce, E. Stahlhut, Ladd, Martindale, Mudge George, T. Hamlin, Simpson, Truitt, Burroughs, Buchanan, Mottar

EVERY two weeks on Wednesday evening at 7:30, a group of boys interested in the promotion of the principles of the Y. M. C. A. assembles as a club to carry on discussions, listen to outside speakers, or enjoy a "social." The members are never at a loss to keep a discussion in progress. The theme around which most of the exchanging of ideas is carried on deals with vocations and the related problems of planning a life work (which includes almost anything!). By inviting outside speakers for a certain topic, first-hand inside information is obtained from those who have had experience in that line.

The local Hi-Y Club is affiliated with the Hi-Y clubs of Illinois and the national Y. M. C. A. Its purpose is "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character."

The officers are Emil Stahlhut, president; Krome George, vice-president; Claxton Burroughs, secretary; and Earl Monroe, treasurer. Mr. Love is the advisory member.

ON December 10, 1934, the girls of Edwardsville High were granted a charter to form a Hi-Tri League in the school. The Hi-Tri League is an organization to which all the girls of the school belong; there are no pledges nor dues. The Hi-Tri Council is composed of representatives from all the classes. To keep the discussions interesting for everyone, the club has been divided into class groups.

This league was originated at Mt. Vernon, Illinois, in 1925 by Miss Cornelia Pierce. In the ten years which have followed, it has become a state-wide organization with twenty-five chapters. Its aim is to develop character, friendship, courtesy, pleasure, and success. The watchword is loyalty.

The officers are Lillian Rhoads, president; Mary Kaufman, vice president; Alma Nowak, secretary; and Evelyn Stolze, treasurer. Miss Benner and Miss Quernheim are the advisers.

THE BOYS' COUNCIL

Brendle, G. Handlon, E. Stahlhut, Mr. Blodgett, Paproth, Lamkin, J. Hentz
Em. Winkle, A. Scheibal, W. Hotz, J. Brown, Simpson

THE Boys' Council was formed last fall through the efforts of Mr. Blodgett. The organization consists of twelve boys, three elected from each class. The object of the group is to provide and plan recreation for the boys at school and to decide about problems that may arise concerning the boys.

In October the members offered their services with those of several other clubs to have a get-acquainted party for all the students. The members volunteered to pass out what there was in the line of refreshments, and then were so obliging as to go without some themselves. The spirit with which this party was received (in spite of the free eats) shows that there is a genuine need for groups which will take action for the students' general welfare.

The council is only in its infancy and in the future it hopes to extend its activity and become one of the prominent groups in the school.

IT IS said that debating broadens one's useful knowledge and improves one's logic. Occasionally, arguing becomes a hobby for some people, just as does any other art—hence these two clubs.

Unemployment insurance and the “share our wealth” movement are lending themselves most suitably as topics for heated debate this season.

The Debate Club officers are Bernard Birger, president; William Colbert, vice-president; Lillian Rhoads, secretary; and Krome George, treasurer. Mr. Kinsel is the faculty adviser.

The Hobby Club was begun this year under the leadership of Messrs. Kinsel, Blodgett, and Gouza to stimulate an interest in instructive hobbies. The hobbies represented are pencil sketching, pen and charcoal and pastel drawing, water color painting, model airplane building, wood carving, and other wood work. Meetings are held weekly and each member works on the project of his own choice.

THE STAMP CLUB

Miss Davis, Peirce, Stepanovich, W. Smith, Mudge
L. Dippold, Leitner, Mur. Dippold, Sperandio, Veesaert, Havelka, Krumstek

BEHOLD the stamp club of Edwardsville High! Although only a little over a year old, it has made considerable progress and is now one of the school's permanent organizations. The number of active members is not exceedingly large, but the interest shown in the club by students and outsiders proves that it does not lack supporters.

The object of this club is to encourage and increase the students' interest in philately (That means the study of stamps!). At each meeting certain phases of stamp collecting and various stamps are studied. Its members not only learn about stamps but also become better acquainted with history and geography in general through the study of the many different stamps of the nations.

Meetings are held during the activity period every other Wednesday. The officers are Glen Sperandio, president; Helen Havelka, vice-president; Lea Dippold, secretary; and Annette Krumsiek, treasurer. Miss Davis is its sponsor.

THE CHEER CLUB

Miss Sloan, K. Young, Sperandio, Mudge, E. Stahlhut, Ackerman, D. Mudd, E. Leitner, G. Schneider
Ward, Eberhart, Robertson, Herder, Stolte, A. Hofeditz, Stafford, Vieth, Moore
W. Colbert, V. Miller, Attig, Reilly, Reichert, Caulk, Bernreuther, Koester

AT any contest when you hear someone “booing” the opponents and referee, you can be sure that he is—not a member of the Cheer Club, because all of these are royal boosters for fair play everywhere and at every time.

A few of the achievements of this club are the selling of the season basketball tickets, the teaching of new songs and yells to the student body, and the arranging of game advertisements in the form of assembly programs. The pep and “spunk” engendered by the Cheer Club have helped to bring many a victory home for old E. H. S. In addition to these, a code has been drawn up to set the standard of the cheer leader as that of host to visiting crowds.

The cheer leaders are Charles Caulk, Judith Reilly, and William Colbert. The song leader is Charles Reichert, and the accompanist Julia Mae Attig. The officers are Charles Reichert, president; Glen Sperandio, vice-president; Emil Stahlhut, secretary; Carl Ackerman, treasurer; Dorothy Bernreuther, typist; and Verna Koester, Geraldine Farrar, Viola Blumberg, and Gladys Herder, attendance monitors. Miss Sloan is the faculty animator.

THE FRENCH CLUB

Sperandio, Herrin, E. Stahlhut, George, Kanady, W. Smith, Kribs, Birger, Mindrup, Em. Winkle, J. West
R. Stullken, M. Kaufman, Wilharm, G. Scheibal, Kunze, Stolze, Wisnaski, T. Robinson, Miss
Adams, Ditchburn
Morgan, Bayer, Cummins, P. Hubach, Forshaw, Bettman, B. Rhoads, Weldner, V. Hunt

PARLEZ-VOUS francais? In other words, "Do you speak French?" If so, you must be interested in the French Club. It was organized this year under the sponsorship of Miss Adams. Every French pupil, whether Freshman or Senior, is a member.

The first meeting was held during the first activity period, at which time all officers were elected. Mary Kaufman was elected president; Elizabeth Morgan, vice-president; Evelyn Stolze, secretary; and Earl Herrin, treasurer.

Several meetings were held, but due to the fact that the first-year students could not always understand the programs, the club was divided into two sections, which met alternately. New officers were elected for the underclassman section. They were Vera Bayer, president; Betty Rhoads, vice-president; and Dorothy Cummins, secretary.

At the meetings songs are sung and clever jokes and stories are told, all in French. Besides gaining a better understanding of the various phases of French life and developing an ability to carry on fluent conversations in French, everybody has a very enjoyable time.

Miss Rieke, M. Stullken, Schade, McManus, Wilharm
Scheibe, Weeks, Honerkamp, E. Dittes, Breitbarth, R. Luksan
L. Leitner, D. Schafer, Reilly, Mur. Dippold, O'Connell, Viere

THE Commerce Club of the Edwardsville High School was organized in December by Miss Rieke. The first meeting was held in January. The club has met every third Thursday since that time.

The purpose of the club is to further the students' knowledge and understanding of the business world and its functions, as well as to develop the members into socially-adjusted citizens through its social and recreational activities, which are directed by the sponsor.

Membership is open to Juniors and Seniors enrolled in the commercial course, or to Juniors and Seniors enrolled in others but carrying one or more electives in the commercial course. All officers must be enrolled in the commercial course.

By recent action of the club, "typing award" winners are to be given "one hundred per cent" guards if their tests are written without errors. The club has received hearty cooperation from the business men and women of the community, and interest is never lacking.

The officers are Muriel Dippold, president; LaVerne Leitner, vice-president; Elva Dittes, secretary; Violet Scheibe, treasurer.

POETRY

JUST THINKING

Isn't it strange that princes and kings,
And clowns that caper in saw-dust rings,
And common folks like you and me,
Are builders with God for eternity?
To each is given a box of tools,
A shapeless mass and a book of rules,
And each must be ere life has flown,
A stumbling block or a stepping stone.

—FRED AMISTADI

STAR GAZING

I want a drink from the dipper
Some windy star-filled night,
And I want to see the star's skipper
And see what gives the stars light.

I don't want the moon to show her face
On that windy, star-filled night;
I'll go and join the star sisters
Just to hear what they're talking about.

I'll go, but maybe I won't stay long;
Just long enough to see
Where the winding path of the milky-way
Leads to, and happy I'll be!

I want to see where the stars get their twinkle,
And why they wink all the night;
I want to know where the shooting stars go
When they weave their banners of light.

And gaily I'll come sliding home
Down the length of the big bear's tail;
Then I'll never, never want to go
When I hear the wind's calling wail.

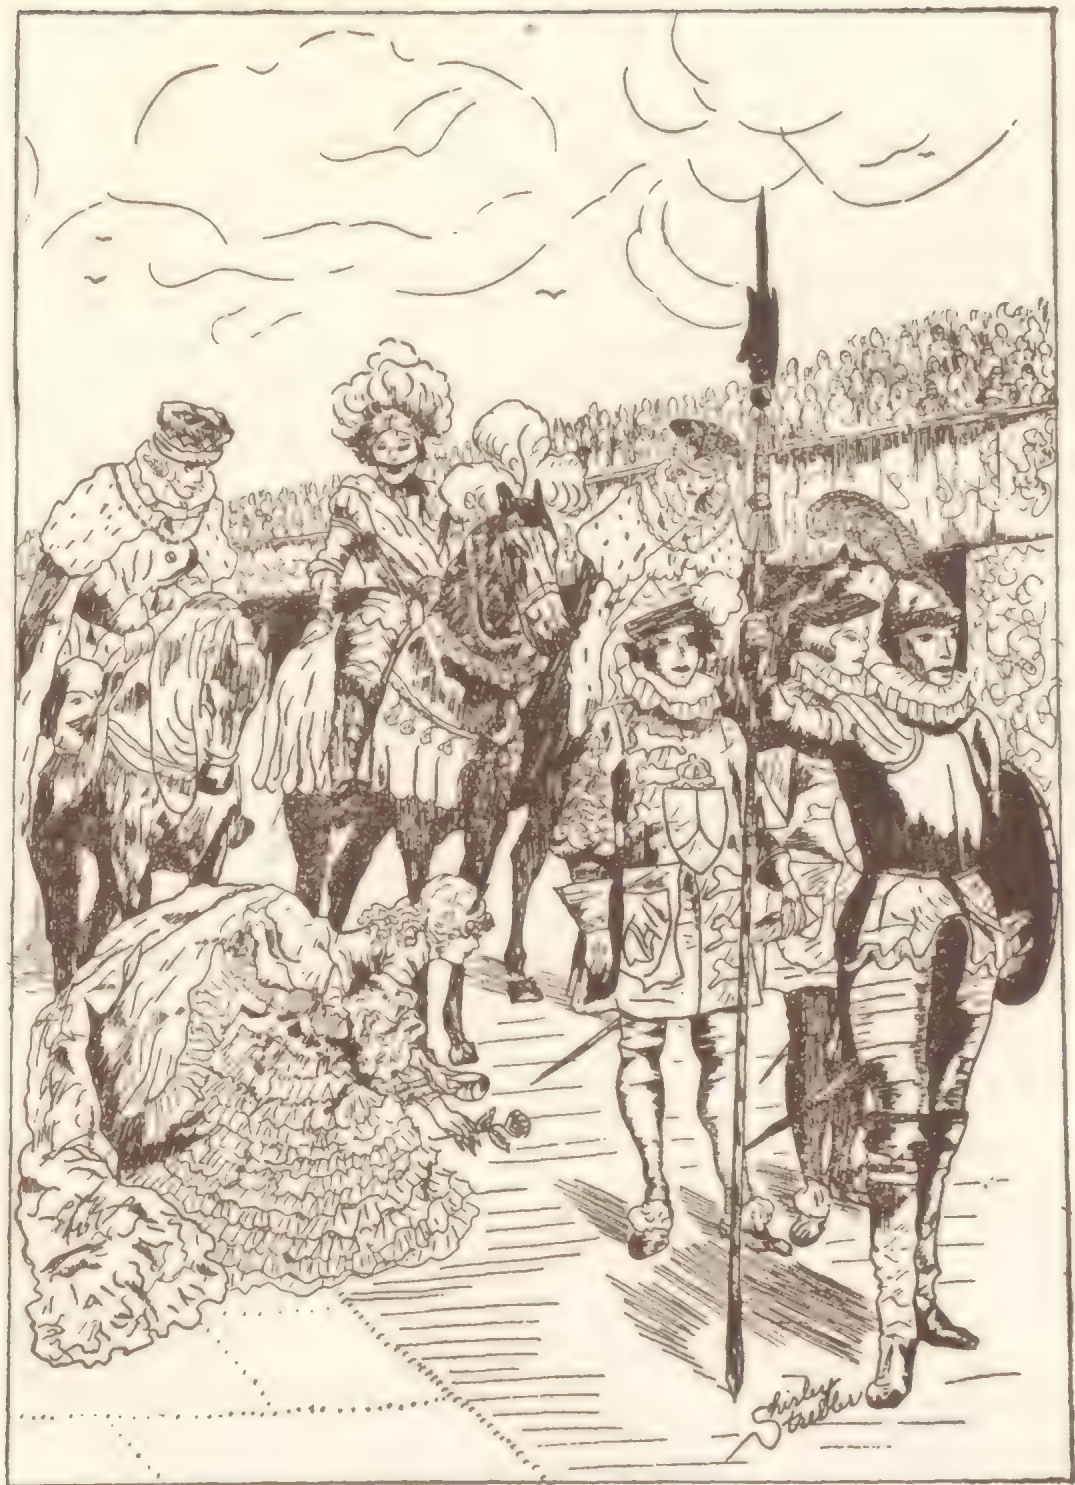

—HEDWIG KOCHANSKI

A REQUEST

I want no flowers on my grave;
In life I was a humble slave—
You would not let me fine things own:
Why place me now upon the throne?
I was not worthy of it then;
Am I more worthy now?

—CLARENCE BOHM

In "Take Off Those Whiskers" an obscure actress, in an attempt to win front-page publicity, mysteriously disappears. Amazing and preposterous complications develop after Martha, disguised as a maid, and her accomplice gain entrance to the Pomeroy home, resolved to track down the mystery. The peaceful household is turned into a veritable madhouse, but, as usual, all is set to rights in the end.

PARTIES

ON October 31, the annual Halloween party was held at the Edwardsville High School, and all goblins, witches, and ghosts were invited. A crowd of more than two hundred and fifty students enjoyed the music of Joe Ladd's orchestra.

A great variety of costumes made it very difficult for the judges to decide upon the winners in the various classifications. Prizes were awarded for the most beautiful, the most handsome, the best witch, the most original, etc.

Fortunes were told, and later refreshments were served, including cider, doughnuts, candy, and potato chips.

The Juniors and Seniors enjoyed a rather lively party on January 31. Although, due to a last minute change in the date, there was not a very large crowd present, every one seemed to have enjoyed dancing to the music of the "Star Dusters." Refreshments consisting of ice cream cups, valentine decorated cake, soda, and candy were served.

A Kentucky mountain play was given by George Handlon, Clarence Hydron, and Krome George before the dancing began, and popular songs were flashed on the screen and sung. Solos were rendered by Betty Jones and David Simpson, accompanied by Betty Guller.

The annual girls' kid party was held March 19. Entertainment was started by playing games. A group of Seniors gave a program which included a modified version of "Romeo and Juliet." The program ended with everyone singing "On the Good Ship Lollypop."

As usual, dancing was the main feature and was enjoyed by everyone, not excluding one of our English teachers and our biology teacher. They both looked very kiddish in their gingham dresses. Music was furnished by Joe Ladd's orchestra.

Ice cream, cakes, soda, and candy were the refreshments served.

The party for the Freshmen and Sophomores given in the gym on March 29 was well attended by both classes. Early in the evening games of chess, checkers, darts, cards, and ping-pong were popular with many of the students and also some of our teachers. After spending some time at these entertainments, dancing was begun to the music of the "Star Dusters." This, of course, was the main feature of the evening but not the most popular, for lunch, consisting of ice cream, cake, candy, and soda was served. After this, dancing was resumed until the unwelcome "Home Sweet Home" was played.

THE BAND CARNIVAL

VIRGINIA Hunt was chosen queen of the second E. H. S. band carnival held on the nights of March 14, 15, and 16. The queen contest started on February 7. With each twenty-five cent purchase, merchants gave one coupon of twenty-five votes. Tabulations of the standings were made three times before the final count. Marie Plessa led after the first period, while Virginia held first the next two and final times.

Last year the queen of the band carnival had as her court eleven girls. This year, in order to make more money for the band treasury and to have a more elaborate coronation, there were twenty-seven girls in her court. Another addition which was welcomed by both the boys and the girls was the escorts for the Grand March. After the Grand March, the twenty-eight couples danced the first dance, and the audience mingled in later.

Although the coronation was the outstanding event of the entire festivities, the many booths and exhibitions and the performances by our own and visiting school bands are not to be overlooked as contributing to the financial success. The money cleared from the three-night carnival is to be used for buying new instruments and new uniforms.

COMMENCEMENT HONOR PINS

HONOR pins will be presented to students who have made forty-eight points above an average of eighty-five per cent during the four years of high school.

Semester averages are used in counting the points; that is, regular students with sixteen units would have thirty-two grades. Points below eighty-five are subtracted from those above eighty-five, the difference of which must be forty-eight or more. An average (in each subject) of the last twelve weeks' grades will be taken; the last six weeks' grades will not be included.

Students who enter our high school after the Freshman or Sophomore year may secure pins if during the last three or two years they make thirty-six or twenty-four points, respectively, above the average of eighty-five. They are subject to all other provisions above.

These pins will be presented on Commencement night to the following:

Lucille Abbee, Josephine Augsburger, Flora Bernasek, Joyce Bollman, Esther Buhrman, Raymond Burns, Dolores Choate, Agnes Dettmar, Elva Dittes, Krome George, Geraldine Giese, Helen Havelka, Clarence Hofeditz, Mildred Honerkamp, Lawrence Kanady, Mary Kaufman, Hedwig Kochanski, Edna Longwish, Errah Martin, Earl Monroe, Elizabeth Morgan, Muri Paproth, Caroline Raut, Lillian Rhoads, Dorothy Schafer, Grace Scheibal, Sherman Sharp, Mima Jean Smith, Glen Sperandio, Carroll Spindler, Emil Stahlhut, Edward Stoecklin, Evelyn Stolze, Florence Suessen, Marjorie Vosburg, Marylee Watson, Eunice Wilharm, Helen William, Verna Zika, Clarence Bohm.

TEMPUS FUGIT

SEPTEMBER

- 4 School again! Wee freshies get their first taste of high school.
- 8 Students are still wondering in which study halls they belong.
- 10 Football men appear limping and lame after opening practice.
- 15 Physical Ed. pupils are gradually getting limbered up.
- 18 Won't someone please tell the Freshies on which floor they can find the elevators!
- 21 Too bad we lost our first football game against Hillsboro with a score 7-0. Better luck next time!
- 24 Cheer Club getting organized under able leadership of Miss Sloan.
- 26 Tennis tournament schedules are seen decorating bulletin boards.
- 28 A rainy football game. But what a game! Beat Staunton with a score of 14-0.
- 29 Look out there students! Newly waxed floors aren't so good.
- 30 Seniors are seen flashing their rings and are they beauties! (I mean the rings.)

OCTOBER

- 2 Tiger staff elected with Emil as our Editor.
- 3 Girls' weiner roast, and oh boy, were those weiners good!
- 4 Lyceum today, consisting of a dog, pony, monkey and cockatoo act. And what's this? A sort of a "get acquainted" party and with Joe Ladd's orchestra.
- 5 The boys are going strong now. Won another football game against Benld with a score 7-0.
- 8 Senior officers elected. Tommy is our president.
- 10 Southwestern conference dissolved.
- 11 Whoopee! Teachers' Institute. No school for us today and tomorrow. Poor teachers!
- 12 Won another game with Madison. Score was 18-0. Keep it up, boys!
- 16 Parent Teacher's Association tonight with Open House afterwards.
- 19 Too bad, Tigers; Belleville only beat us by a score of 14-13, though.
- 22 Senior pictures being taken. Watch the birdie!
- 23 School was entertained with a lyceum number today—a play called "The Rivals" given by Coffey-Miller Players.
- 25 Operetta tryouts!
- 26 Senior Day, and a very amusing program given by the mighty upper classmen.
- 27 Football game with Wood River with a score of 13-7, their favor.
- 29 Oh! Those nasty French pupils.
- 31 Halloween party tonight; What clever costumes, and did you see those teachers?

NOVEMBER

- 1 Slightly colder weather. Get out your winter coats, folks!
- 2 A football game at Alton and victory for us! Score was 12-7.
- 4 What a day! Rain, rain, rain.

- 5 Thank heavens! That certain Senior boy finally got his hair cut.
- 6 Who is that Sophomore boy who comes to school so sleepy that he forgets in which study hall he belongs?
- 7 That certain male teacher still has marriage on the brain, according to his classes!
- 8 Mr. Williamson spoke to us today on the "Community Chest."
- 9 Armistice Day Program!
- 12 No school today. Won an exciting football game against Collinsville! Score 20-0.
- 14 More and more school.
- 16 Our first activity period was held today, from 1:00 to 1:30 P. M.
- 17 What a game! But not such a good ending. Played against E. St. Louis and lost by a score of 14-10.
- 19 Pupils are very busy working on the operetta.
- 20 What a dreary day! Rain, rain, go away!
- 21 22 No school these two days. Teachers go visiting!
- 23 Six weeks' tests. Woe is me!
- 24 First basketball practice game with Livingston. We're off for a good start, having won with a score 18-17.
- 27 Operetta "Jerry of Jericho Road" was largely attended despite rainy weather.
- 28 Pep meeting for the game at Granite on Thanksgiving Day.
- 29 Thanksgiving.
- 30 No school today either, thank heavens!

DECEMBER

- 1 Twenty shopping days until Christmas.
- 3 Oh me! Did we hate to get up this morning after the holidays!
- 4 Report cards for the second six weeks.
- 6 P. T. A. dance tonight.
- 7 Stamp Club play under direction of Miss Davis.
- 9 Hi-Tri Club for girls organized.
- 11 Basketball practice in full swing.
- 13 Lyceum number in the form of a magician and his tricks.
- 16 Christmas trees and decorations in all the halls.
- 19 Snow, snow, snow.
- 21 Christmas holidays. Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

JANUARY

- 4 Pep meeting for game with Benld. Won with score of 21-15.
- 5 Game with Staunton. Score 21-14, our favor. Keep it up, boys!
- 7 What a dreary day! Rain and no sun.
- 10 Pep meeting today for game with Metropolis.
- 11 What a game! Did we beat Metropolis or did we? Score 13-39.
- 12 A very good game against Beaumont, but too bad we had to lose.
- 14 What a fight! Between girls, too.
- 16 Pep meeting with singing and the exhibition of new basketball suits.
- 17 Game with Livingston.
- 18 The boys travel two hundred miles to Metropolis to beat them by a score of 20-21. Wish we could have seen it!
- 20 Burr-rr! Is it cold? Snow, snow, and more snow!

- 23 For heaven's sake, won't someone own up to having given the taffy-pull for the teachers? We have our ideas though.
- 25 Pep meeting program. Game with Mt. Olive, and did we win?
- 26 Won the game against Witt, 20-14.
- 28 Looks like spring today. How we hate to go to school on days like this!
- 29 Game with Western Military Academy. Score was 47-26, our favor. What a game!

FEBRUARY—

- 1 Hi-Tri officers were installed by Mt. Vernon girls. It was a beautiful ceremony.
- 3 Getting a good start for the new semester. Just one more to go for the Seniors.
- 4 Invitations chosen by the Seniors.
- 5 Lyceum number today with "Ed and Red," piano masters, as the entertainers.
- 7 The first manuscript for the Tiger has been handed in for typing.
- 8 A program by the Junior Class furnished the entertainment for assembly. A play, "Pyramus and Thisbe," was given by members of the class. Also, basketball game with Lebanon, which we won 23-17.
- 9 Game with Litchfield. Score 24-20. What a victory!
- 11 Activity period beginning today.
- 12 Miss Benner took her English class on an inspection tour of the city library this morning.
- 14 What a gloomy day! It's a little wet, too!
- 15 Three moving pictures shown us by the Bell Telephone Company.
- 17 Getting warmer out. Let's hope it keeps on.
- 19 The "Queen" candidates are working hard!
- 21 Very amusing program given by the public speaking classes.
- 22 Beat Gillespie by a score of 34-12. Nice playing!
- 23 Tough luck! Decatur beat us by a score of 15-23.
- 25 Marie Plessa has highest number of votes for first period of queen contest.
- 28 New classy-looking basketball suits for the boys!

MARCH—

- 1 March came in like a lamb. How will it go out?
- 2 After two overtime periods we beat Hillsboro 31-29!
- 4 Original poetry still being handed in.
- 6 Pep meeting for tournament. Coach's remark "The Wood River Oilers will oil up the Tigers' machine!" came true. Score 34-27, our favor.
- 7 Another victory for the Tigers! Beat Venice by a score of 57-32.
- 8 Too bad! Alton won by score of 25-27.
- 9 Beat Madison by score of 38-28 which gave us third place
- 11 Plans for the carnival still going on.
- 13 Oh, what photographs they are collecting!
- 14 First night of carnival.
- 15 Second night of carnival.

CLASS PROPHECY

WE, THE class of 1935, do shudder and tremble at the thought of the destinies so clearly revealed to us by peering into Henry Dittes' glass eye.

Fifteen years hence:

Our class has, on the whole, refrained from becoming school teachers of any sort, shape, or smell. However, there was one exception. The Rt. Hon. Mr. Krumsiek left hurriedly several years ago for South America—or was it Greece? Now Charles Reichert puts his feet on the principal's desk and is setting a new high for general—. Naturally in the course of fifteen years some of us have died (one way or another), some of us are a little scratched, and some badly bent. George Handlon was lynched in South Carolina for scaring the children; he had gone into the distillery business on a small scale Louis Chairney and Bill Catalano took over. Fred Jacobi rushed to the altar with Virginia Hunt, but later died under peculiar circumstances. Virginia then Peggy Joyced past Clarence Hofeditz, Norman Probst, and Olin Schwab, and is at present happily wedded to John Muzik. Earl Monroe, under the guise of Henri Monrosi, with Elizabeth Morgan (the chameleon kid), were running a swank hair cutting and dyeing establishment until Elizabeth, in a moment of wrath, whopped off Earl's ears. Somebody pushed Bernard Birger off the boat in mid-Atlantic, and the Captain wouldn't wait for Benny to catch up. He was on his way to tour Europe with his Folies Bergeres, consisting of Vera Baird, Miriam Hotz, Florence Suessen, Eunice Wilharm, Dorothy Schafer, Bernice Neathammer, Helen Havelka, Lucille Breitbarth, Verna Koester, Nigel Klausing, Ruth Hunt, and Mildred Ashauer—"the dizzy dozen." Sherman Sharp has invented a machine which can tell you your collar size, whether you have a criminal record, and when you last saw your dentist, just by smelling your breath. However, Bill Colbert, successor to the Macks, says, "It won't work." Krome George is tending the library on Alcatraz Island for having become light-fingered on a trip through the mint. Mildred Honerkamp and Marie Mateyka are suing Murl Paproth for heart balm. Harold Kribs was fatally shot trying to out-argue a cop, and Roy Dees and Josephine Augsburger are said to be that way.

Lawrence Kanady, Norman Fiegenbaum, and Waldon Lewis, the rich philanthropists, recently bought out the Arena and converted it into an aviary for homeless birds, "spatsies" barred. Lorraine Rasplica teaches the parrots to refrain from profane language and LaVerne Wehling settles all family squabbles. Gump Highlander and Jack Yates saw a purple crocodile with silver spots one night and died of the shock. Glen Sperandio and Emil Stahlhut are creating a sensation at "Smokey Joe's" as an Eskimo dance team. Those dashing spinsters, Alma Nowak and Edna Longwish, have gone off to the South Seas on a real man hunt. Joyce (the Rat) Bollman is in jail for bigamy, Erras Blase and Genevieve Piper being the excess frauds.

Jim Abbee, one of our great successes, is ambassador to England and attends all royal receptions in tight knee-britches. Ray Burns and LaVergne Chandler are the India rubber men in Orville West's one hundred and one ring rodeo. Merle Dauderman and Caroline Raut are brain-trusting for Mary Kaufman, first woman governor of Illinois, who has introduced the custom of creating Illinois Generals to compete with the Kentucky Colonels. Loretta O'Connell was lately elected president of the Holy-Roller's League and rolls with the best of them. Paul Burrus has degenerated into a radio crooner, advertising Edwardsville Creamery's contented products; he moos excellently.

Myrtle Hyten, the well-known actress, sets a fad which is rapidly spreading: that of having her teeth pulled and substituting a light chromium plated set. To say the least, she presents a novel appearance. Rebecca Fiegenbaum and Henry Dittes will receive the Mussolini Medal for the prize family of the state, defeating Lillian Rhoads and Wilbur Meyer by a pair of twins. Tom Cunningham has bought the Garrick and reformed it into a respectable joint, no smoking allowed. His new hit, "How You Roll Them Eyes Around," co-stars Cleo Betzold and Pete Christy with a cast including many of our old class: Fred Amistadi, Elva Dittes, Esther Buhrman, Marie Vieth, Helen Willman, Errah Martin, Verna Zika, Flora Bernasek, Agnes Vohradsky, and Ray Waugh. Calvin Bauer was the cause of a furor in the medical world when Dr. Eugene Schmid found that Calvin's stomach was where his brains ought to be and there was nothing where his stomach used to be. A delicate operation by that noted surgeon Dr. Melvin Moehle restored his stomach and saved him from the terrible fate of eating up for the rest of his life, but still left him short the brains.

Evelyn Stolze, the big lumber woman, has made a fortune by repopularizing the cigar store Indian. Horror note: Woodrow Lamb, while driving his model "T" to the Smithsonian Institute, mixed it up with the Worden Flyer. They collected poor Woodrow's remains in a saucer. Clarence Bohm is on the air as the Philco television man, and we can view Clarence's friendly mug any night at six-thirty. Dolores Choate went to Hoboken (the new Reno) to get a divorce from Ken Roffman on a charge of mental cruelty, which charge the judge said was a bit optimistic, but he granted the divorce when it was found that Kenneth ate buns in bed. Geraldine Giese gives advice to the love-lorn on the second page of the good old Intelligencer. Agnes Dettmar, Kathryn Klein, Dorothy Bernreuther, and Ellen Kearney bought that old spooky house on St. Louis street and turned it into an old maid's home. The story is told that Police Chief Virgil Hellinger got an emergency call for the prowler car to come immediately and rescue a burglar. The badly frightened burglar turned out to be our once respectable classmate, Calvin Hofeditz.

And now for daring feats: Marylee Watson made feminine history when she volunteered to become the first woman inter-planetary flyer and man Prof. John Schwager's rocket ship to the moon. She got off to a great start, but the old crate wheeled around and buzzed off straight for the sun—a cosmic record for bad shots. When the radio

Juicy Jingles to Put Freshies Asleep

Little Jack Horner sat in the corner,
Eating his Christmas pie.
He put in his thumb and pulled out a plum
And said....."Ickey, ickey!"

"Johnny," said the minister, reprovingly, as he met an urchin carrying a string of fish one Sunday afternoon, "did you catch those fish today?"

"Yes, sir," answered Johnny. "That's what they get for chasing worms on Sunday."

Little Miss Muffet
Sat on a tuffet,
Eating her kurds and whey.
Along came a spider and sat down beside her—Come up and see me some time!

Little Boy Blue, come blow your horn,
The sheep are in the meadow,
The cows in the corn.
Where is the little boy that tends to the sheep—
he is drunk!

I had a little pony,
I used him every day,
But I lent him to a lady
In Caesar class one day:
She whipped him out to use him,
When the teacher stood before—
And I'll never lend my pony
To a lady any more.

Humpty Dumpty sat on a wall;
Humpty Dumpty had a great fall.
All the king's horses and all the king's men
.....had flat feet!!

Twinkle, twinkle, little star,
How I wonder what you are.
Up above the world so high.....such altitude!

Jack and Jill took Sunset Hill in high, and hit a tree.
The car's a wreck, Jack broke his neck, Jill has our sympathy.

Traveler (in Nevada): "What seems to be the matter with this train?"
Conductor: "Trouble with the couplings, sir;
you see we are coming into Reno."

Gail S. (pointing to the football field):
"That's Dees out there kicking. He will be our best man in a couple of weeks."
Betty C.: "Oh, Gail, this is so sudden."

Ba Ba Black Sheep,
Have you any wool?
Yes sir, yes sir, three bags full.
One for my master and one for my dame,
And one to raffle off.

Overheard in the Book Store.

Bernard Birger, entering: "Ah, good morning. Have you got Kipling's books?"

Obliging Clerk: "Certainly, shall I show them to you?"

B. B.: "No, thanks. I just thought I'd ask. Why don't you return them? He may want them by this time. Little chilly in here, isn't it?"

Clerk (perspiring): "Chilly, how?"

B. B.: "I meant it's an ice store. Which way are your books bound?"

Poor Clerk: "We have them in various bindings. Shall I show you something?"

B. B.: "No, thanks. I'm in your line myself."

Clerk (weakly): "Indeed!"

B. B.: "Yes, I'm a bookkeeper. Is your ink well? Say, you ought to be discharged."

Little Audrey had fallen into the river. "How did you come to fall in?" asked the man who pulled him out.

"I didn't come to fall in," replied little Audrey. "I came to fish."

Miss Pergrem had read to the Freshies the beautiful old poem, "The Night Before Christmas," and they were reproducing it in class next day. Earl Herrin waved his hand insistently. "Miss Pergrem, what became of the man that swallowed the ribbon?"

"What man, Earl?"

"The man that swallowed the ribbon," he insisted.

"But there was nothing about a man who swallowed a ribbon."

"Yes, there was. You read about him," he persisted.

"Well, Earl, here is the poem," she said. "Now see if you can find anything about a man who swallowed a ribbon."

Earl took the book, glanced over it hastily, then waved his hand again, rose triumphantly and read, "He rushed to the window and threw up the sash."

Love (In Parenthesis)

In our little boat

We drift and float,

Under the sheltering trees,

And I feel the blush

Of her cheek warm blush,

As it's kissed (by the passing breeze).

In our little canoe

That was built for two

Just two—and not any more.

We love and love

(The stars above)

And we hug and hug (the shore).

A puffed-up college grad, after four years of absence, alighted at the station of his old home town. There was no one on the platform whom he knew at all. No one.

Discouraged, he sought out the baggage master, an old friend.

To him at least he would be more than welcome, and he was about to extend hearty greetings, when the other spoke first.

"Hello, George," said the old man. "Goin' away?"

And very, very poorly space
These words upon this paper so,
Explaining how you come and go,
For surely, young one, can't you see
I once a Freshman had to be?

Theorem—If I love a girl she loves me.

Given—I love the girl.

To prove—She loves me.

Proof: All the world loves a lover (Shakespeare); my girl is all the world to me (Evident).

Therefore—My girl equals the world (Things equal to the same thing are equal to each other).

Therefore—My girl loves a lover; I am a lover; therefore, my girl loves me.

Laugh and the teacher laughs with you,
Laugh and you laugh alone,
First when the joke's the teacher's,
Last when the joke's your own.

As they paddled along in a nook,
She said faintly, "Why, Algernon, look
In that oak, I declare—
I see mistletoe there!"
And the crew fished them out with a hook.

Whatever troubles Adam had,
No man could make him sore,
By saying when he told a jest,
"I've heard that one before."

Here's to the chaperon,
May she learn from Cupid,
Just enough blindness
To make her sweetly stupid.

On a recent examination paper in civics was this question: "If the president, vice president, and all the members of the cabinet should die,
who would officiate?"

Little Jimmie Abbee thought for some time, trying in vain to remember who came next in succession. At last a happy inspiration came to him and he answered, "The undertaker."

"My dear," Dolores' father's voice was stern,
"You must set this matter right;
What time did that young Junior leave,
That was here to call last night?"

"His work was pressing, father dear,
And although his love was great,
He took his leave and went away
At just a quarter of eight."

Then a twinkle came to her bright hazel eye,
And her dimple deeper grew,
"'Tis surely no sin to tell him that
For a quarter of eight is two."

Norman F.: "Aren't you wild about bathing

Joyce B.: "I don't know. I never bathed

Said a bald-headed man to a waitress bold,
"See here, young woman, my cocoa's cold!"
She scornfully answered, "I can't help that,
If the blamed thing's chilly, put on your hat!"

Teacher (about to inflict chastisement):
"Young man, have you anything to say before I punish you?"

Little Archie (earnestly): "Yes, sir, if you please. I would like to have it on the Palmer
Penmanship method—the heavy strokes upward, and the light strokes downward."

How Strange It Would Be—

If Bernard B. forgot to chew gum.
If Rose Luksan forgot to giggle.
If Earl Monroe always came to school with his hair cut.
If Jane Huggins sat still for five minutes.
If our dear editor had nothing to do.
If Virginia Hunt forgot her make-up.
If Miriam forgot Paul.
If Myrtle forgot to be late.

Drawing Teacher: "Now all of you take your seats and draw a picture of Plymouth Rock."

Little Alex: "Do you want it to be a hen or a rooster?"

Elmer A.: "Charlie, what make of car do you call that one you have?"

Chas. R.: "Well, it's the old reliable type, the 'R. F. D.'"

Elmer: "What's that?"

Chas.: "Rescued from the dumps."

BASKETBALL

Edwardsville, 57—Venice 32.

Substitutions began when score was 22-4. Easy victory.

Edwardsville, 25—Alton, 27.

Upset game for Tigers. Alton's long shots exceedingly good.

Edwardsville, 38—Madison, 28.

Tigers took third place in tournament with comparative ease.

"I turned the way I signaled," indignantly said the lady, after the crash.

"I know it," said Tommy, "that's what fooled me."

FOOTBALL

Edwardsville, 12—Alton, 7.

One of the big games of the year. Feelings high on both sides. Tigers clawed to touchdown in third quarter. Extra point missed. Touchdown and extra point by Alton in second quarter. Tigers score again one minute before end of game. Last night game of the year for the Tigers.

Edwardsville, 20—Collinsville, 0.

Ideal day for football. Thirteen points for Tigers in first half. Another score in third quarter. No scoring in fourth quarter. Fitting Armistice Day for Edwardsville.

Edwardsville, 10—East St. Louis, 14.

East St. Louis team large and fast. Three points for Tigers in first quarter; touchdown and extra point in second quarter. East St. Louis got touchdown and extra point near end of first half. Another score by East Side in third quarter. East Side's large size deciding factor of game.

Edwardsville, 6—Granite City, 0.

Big crowds at final game of season. By short but consistent gains, Tiger scored touchdown. No extra point. Scoring threats from both sides excitement for remainder of afternoon. Hardest earned victory of year for Tigers.

Vera: "What color dress will you wear to the ball?"

Edna: "We're supposed to wear something to match our boy friend's hair, so I'll wear black. What will you wear?"

Vera: "Oh, I don't think I'll go; my boy friend is bald!"

The tenderfoot thought he could ride, and mounted a pony in front of a lot of cowboys. The pony soon threw him. A cowboy, helping him up, said, "Well! What threw you?"

"What threw me? Why she bucked something fearful! Didn't you see her buck?" cried the tenderfoot.

"Buck!" said the cowboy. "Why she only coughed!"

CLASS PROPHECY

apparatus at last went dead, Marylee was saying, "It's getting hotter than——."

Isabelle Kearney, Grace Scheibal, Thelma Madison, and Mima Jean Smith caused a tense international situation when the Japanese high authorities chopped off their heads for spying on the spring styles in Japanese women's wear and afterwards reporting it to Fifth Avenue. Lucille Abbee successfully defended her title as national women's golf champion for the fifth consecutive time. Ray Bender has realized his ambition and makes wigs; Edward Stoecklin dandruff-proofs them. Charles Abendroth is national manager of his old company and Ben Kroger's pride and joy. He attributes his success to his better half, Shirley Strebler. Paul Hertel plays at the Central Park Casino for five thousand dollars a night with Hedwig Kochanski singing the torch songs. Frederick Merkel and Leonard Flavin were stewards on a trans-Atlantic Zeppelin but were fired because Leonard couldn't resist trailing a fishing line. Carroll Spindler is given the credit for designing this year's Ford V-Thirty-Two (Flies, swims, and jumps; kitchen and dinette on all stock models). And last, but not least, Dorothy Stephens, as president of the W. C. T. U., is still trying to get the country back to blind-tigers and home brew.

Though this prophecy may be a bit gruesome, it seems that the class of '35 is going to create quite a stir in the world.

EGROEG EMORK

Have You Heard This One?

Once upon a time there was a merchant (or maybe he was a manufacturer, or a doctor or dentist, or lawyer—have it your own way!) who made a great fortune without the aid of printing.

You hadn't heard it? No? Well, neither have we, because it's such a darned lie it wouldn't make even a good fable!

Knowing that you must have printing of some kind and believing you want only the best kind, we take the liberty of reminding you of—
